Ex officio: David Barsky, Virginia Mann

1. We approved the minutes from February 26.
2. We discussed the review of the proposed MSW. Kara Witzke emphasized that there is a need for this program in the region and that she would be willing to act as an originator for the program proposal. UCC will wait for an answer from the provost to the questions which we presented in UCC before we start the review. David Barsky will inform the provost about the fact that Kara Witzke would be willing to be the champion of the proposal. If UCC gets a positive response from the provost then we will start collecting question and changes for the P-Form next week.
3. We discussed the proposed certificate in the College of Education. An email will be sent to Chuck De Leone to get a written statement about his concerns.
4. Martha Stoddard-Holmes visited the UCC and we had a discussion about the course LTWR336e. In the discussion it became clear that the approval of CCTC for a course depends on the used course literature. This has to be selected from a CCTC approved list of young adult literature. The used methodology and the analysis which is used in the course seem not to influence the approval. Therefore the UCC asked Martha Stoddard-Holmes to include young adult literature to the reading list of her course and to change the title, for example 'Young Adult and Children's Literature Into Film'.
